A Circle of Friends

After School Care

Please call to determine availability for the current school year.
Open registration for the 2009-2010 school year began on May 1.

A Circle of Friends is an after-school program for children in afternoon kindergarten and grades 1-4. It provides a safe, supervised environment where children may socialize, play or do homework. Our professional staff oversee student activities including sports, arts and crafts, games, reading, theme parties, music, videos and study time. Fee includes a snack and beverage daily.
